

My Academic Resume

Mr. Tu has a bachelor degree of forensic medicine (5 years, Tongji Medical University, Wuhan, China), diploma of law (3 years, Zhejiang University, Hangzhou, China) and qualifications of a lawyer and a primary judge (China). Before he went to the UK to pursue his LLM, he was promoted to be a primary judge in an intermediate court (Ningbo, Zhejiang, China). He was conferred LLM in May, 2003 (University of Aberdeen, UK). He began to do his doctoral research on private international law in October, 2003 at the same university. He was awarded a PhD at the University of Aberdeen (UK) in November, 2006. Thereafter, Mr. Tu started his academic career as an assistant professor of law in the University of Macau in September, 2007. Since then, he has been teaching private international law and other courses related to this field in the University of Macau. His academic articles have already appeared, inter alia, in American Journal of Comparative Law and Netherlands International Law Review.