

Biography of Ting Wai

Ting Wai graduated from the Chinese University of Hong Kong and obtained his PhD in Political Science and International Relations from the University of Paris-X (Nanterre), France. Formerly Research Fellow at the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, Singapore, he is now Professor of the Department of Government and International Studies, Hong Kong Baptist University. His research interests include domestic politics and foreign policies of China, and theories of international relations. He has published extensively on Chinese diplomacy, Sino-American relations, Sino-European relations, China and Korean Peninsula, China and Indian-Pakistan relations, proliferation of weapons of mass destruction in Asia, Chinese visions of regional cooperation, Chinese nuclear strategy, Mainland-Hong Kong relations, and external relations and international status of Hong Kong. He was invited by the Department of State to visit the United States as part of the International Visitor Program, and also invited by the European Commission to visit Brussels, Stockholm and Athens as part of the European Union Visitor Program. He was a visiting professor or visiting scholar at Ateneo de Manila University, Harvard University, Oxford University, and Institut d'Etudes Politiques of Lille, France. He is a member of the editorial advisory board of four academic journals.