International Conference Organisation

FBA AND PEKING UNIVERSITY JOINTLY ORGANISED AN ONLINE INTERNATIONAL ACCOUNTING CONFERENCE

An online conference for a special issue in Abacus, a leading international accounting journal, was jointly organised by the Business Research and Training Centre (BRTC) at FBA and the Research Centre of Guanghua School of Management at Peking University on the 6th and 7th June. It was co-chaired by Prof. Liansheng Wu from Guanghua School of Management and Prof. Jason Xiao from FBA.

With the title ‘Accounting, Auditing and Corporate Governance in China’, the conference attracted over 250 experts and scholars from Australia, Canada, China, France, Ghana, Hong Kong, Italy, Macao, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, and the United States.

Highlights of the conference consisted of an opening speech from Prof. Jean Chen, Dean of FBA and the keynote speeches from two prominent academics: Prof. T. J. Wong from the University of Southern California, who is also an associate editor of Management Science and the former editor of The Accounting Review, and Prof. Weiguo Zhang from Tsinghua University and Shanghai University of Finance and Economics, who is also a former member of the international accounting standards setting body - IASB.
