

Seminar on “English Language Learning Using Modern Information Technologies”

Date: Monday 29 April 2019

Time: 13:00 – 14:00

Venue: Room E32-G020, Faculty of Law

Language: English

Target Audience: UM Staff and Students, Secondary English Teachers

Online Registration: <https://go.um.edu.mo/0rhgnnl7> or QR Code

Abstract

Prof. Rustam SHADIEV will discuss how modern information technologies can be applied for English language learning. First, current issues in English language learning will be presented. Then related theories of foreign/second language learning will be introduced. After that modern information technologies and how they can be used for English language learning will be discussed. Applications of technologies to English language learning will be presented with respect to individual learning and learning in groups. Various technologies such as computer, web-based and mobile will be reviewed. In addition, several examples from recent research projects will be presented.

Speaker

Prof. Rustam SHADIEV is professor in the School of Education Science, Nanjing Normal University, China. He attended Bachelor and Master Programs from 1991 until 1996 at Samarkand State University, Uzbekistan. He received Doctor of Philosophy degree from Central University, Taiwan, China in 2012. He worked as postdoctoral researcher at Cheng Kung University in Taiwan, China for about four years after completion of doctoral study. His research interests include technology-enhanced language learning and cross-cultural education.

For his excellent academic performance he was awarded Student Research Achievement Award by Central University, Taiwan, China twice in 2011 and 2012, IEEE Technical Committee on Learning Technology Young Researcher Award in Advanced Learning Technologies in 2013, and Senior Membership of IEEE in 2017.

For enquiries, please contact Mr. Alan CHANG of FED

Tel: 8822-4109, E-mail: FED_Event@um.edu.mo