Speaker

Prof Pauline Wing Wah MAK, Assistant Professor, Department of English Language Education, The Education
University of Hong Kong

Abstract

This seminar will focus on portfolio assessment in second language writing. Participants of this seminar will be equipped with knowledge and ideas about how the benefits of PA can be sustained over time as well as the support teachers need to realize change in assessment in their teaching contexts. Implications will be provided for primary and secondary teacher education in Macau. The potential audience include staff, postgraduate students, undergraduates from primary and secondary English education programs, and Macau primary and secondary English teachers.
