TAIWAN, JAPAN, AND THE PRC: AN UNEASY TRIANGLE

Speaker: DR. THOMAS STOW WILKINS

Centre for International Security Studies, University of Sydney

Date: 13 JAN 2012 (Friday)

Time: 11:00-12:30 a.m.

Venue: P339

The talk will look into the current state of Taiwan-Japan relations and its future prospects. It examines the basis of shared interests and values between Taipei and Tokyo and how they balance these with the strength of a rising China. It concludes that low-key cooperation on non-traditional security issues is possible, especially in the area of disaster relief operations.
