

China's Anti-Terrorism Policy And Chinese Foreign Policy

Speaker:

Prof. Xu Jianying

Chinese Academy of Social Sciences

Brief Introduction

This talk will focus on how China's anti-terrorism plays a role in Chinese foreign policy. It will examine in details the case of "East Turkistan" terrorist forces by looking at its history, development, and damages done to China, particularly with an emphasis on the period after 2010. It will discuss how Chinese government responds to such terrorist forces; and explore the implications of such policies for Chinese foreign policy overall and China's relations with some neighboring countries.

Date 21/11/2014 (Fri)

Time 11:00-12:30

Venue E21-4037

Language Mandarin

澳門大學
UNIVERSIDADE DE MACAU
UNIVERSITY OF MACAU

Department of Government and Public Administration, FSS