Post-screening discussion by: Mr. Gavin McDougall, Director of Public Affairs, Consulate General of Australia

In 1965 a young man leaves the idyllic life of fishing, hanging out with his mates and his girl, when his mother returns him to the religious mission for schooling. After being punished for an act of youthful rebellion, he runs away on a journey that ultimately leads him back home.

It was awarded the Audience Award for Best Feature in Melbourne International Film Festival Awards 2009.
