

Seminars to commemorate the 70th Anniversary of the Victory of the Chinese People's War of Resistance against Japanese Aggression and the World Anti-Fascist War

Gender and War —— Japanese Women's Organizations in the War of Resistance against Japanese Invasion of China

Head and Researcher of Institute of Japanese Studies of Chinese Academy of Social Sciences

Hu Peng

19/9/2015 Saturday (15:00-17:00)

Language: Chinese (Mandarin)

Location: Room G068, Ground Floor, Anthony Lau Building, University of Macau (E4-G068)

About Hu Peng:

Hu Peng gets her PhD in PKU. She served as professor of Research Office of Japanese Society, Institute of Japanese Studies, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences. Her major studies involve Japanese women, marriage and family, social organizations, social movements and so on. She has published many works like Japanese Women's Organizations in Wartime System (1931-1945) and Issues of Japanese Women from Perspective of Sexuality.

Abstract:

The object of this lecture is Japanese women's organization in the War of Resistance against Japanese Invasion of China. The lecture involves four parts: 1. Gender and War —— Japanese Women's Organizations in the War of Resistance against Japanese Invasion of China. 2. Four official Japanese Women's Organizations in the War of Resistance against Japanese Invasion of China. 3. Features and roles of the official Japanese Women's Organizations in the War of Resistance against Japanese Invasion of China. 4. Gender, War and the responsibility of the war. The lecture will analyze Japanese women's roles and responsibilities in the War of Resistance against Japanese Invasion of China.