

Your Donation Our Charity Services

Henry Fok Pearl Jubilee College has organized workshops to create eco-friendly and cultural and creative products to raise funds to support the college's community charity projects.

In December 2015, we will offer community service in Guizhou to help students from poor mountainous villages by bringing over teaching materials and articles of daily use.

Your donations will go towards our current and upcoming service-learning projects around the world.