The Library Campus Seminar Series:

Making University Life More Interesting

Saturday, May 8, 2010

This third of four installments in the Seminar Series will address:

Extracurricular Activities

What is a meaningful university life? Does it have to do with lectures, projects, GPA...? NO! We can enjoy a variety of extracurricular activities such as events, clubs, competitions and public interest workshops. What's holding you back? Come, join us and learn more about the opportunities available to you!
